

March 25, 1994

Elkhorn Independent.

Lakeland's Little Learners Daycare performed a Scandinavian dance for the residents of Lakeland Nursing Home during an ethnic fair held on March 18. Residents enjoyed tastes of different countries around the world. Food made by the recreational department staff was a favorite among the residents, bringing memories back of their ethnic background. Staff and families of members brought in items from the different countries for the residents to look at and study.